WHAT DOES THIS MEAN IN MY LIFE TODAY?

Baptism:

Baptism publicly expresses personal faith in Jesus Christ and symbolizes one's turning to Christ for forgiveness of sins and entrance into a brand new life. There will be baptisms on Easter Sunday. If you need to be baptized, talk to a pastor.

Deacons Service Opportunities:

Being a part of God's family means helping one another when in need. The deacons want to develop a list of names of those who can help with simple tasks, like driving someone to the doctor or mowing their lawn. Please complete the form sent via email last week or complete a hard copy in the Welcome Center.

MOMs:

Wednesday, April 2nd, from 9 to 11am. Join a supportive group for expectant mothers and those with young children, from newborns to age 5. Childcare is available for all participants. Everyone is welcome! For further details, please reach out to Marisa DeForest at (607) 287-1102.

PrimeTime Drive:

Personal Care Items will be accepted for the month of April to assist the Oneonta Family Services Association in helping local families and homeless in need. Items requested include: laundry pods, toilet paper, and baby wipes.

Membership Seminar:

If you have been attending MSBC and are ready to take the next step, join us on Saturday, April 12th, 9:30-11am in the Boardroom. Pick up a Membership Booklet on the table outside of the office & read prior to the seminar.

CLIFF Fusion Night:

Instead of Youth Group on Friday, April 4th, we'll join together with other local youth groups (our Fusion Youth Network) for an evening of fun, fellowship, & worship. Meet from 6-9pm at the Boys and Girls Club in Oneonta. All 6th-12th graders welcome!

If you are able, please consider using one of the alternate parking locations available to MSBC attendees. This will leave the parking lot open for those who cannot walk long distances and those with young families. In addition to the available street parking, we have permission to park in the following locations: 1. The Post Office 2. Bookhout Funeral Home 3. Coldwell Banker Real Estate 4. Hughson & Benson Insurance 5. Grummons Funeral Home.
